

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

1 Complete the sentences with the present perfect form of the verbs in parentheses.

- My dad has learned (learn) four languages.
- Two of my sister's friends _____ (be) on safari.
- My uncle _____ (never / have) a car.
- Some people _____ (never / listen) to music online.
- Rick and Kyle _____ (not travel) abroad.
- Tim _____ (not meet) anyone famous.
- You _____ (never / arrive) late for school.
- My aunt _____ (see) Niagara Falls.

2 Write questions and short answers in the present perfect.

- you / ever / drink / green tea?
Have you ever drunk green tea?
- he / ever / play / tennis?

- A Has your cat ever killed a bird?
B Yes, it _____.
- James and Nathan / ever / climb a mountain?

- your hair / ever / be / red?

- A Have I ever lied to you?
B No, you _____.

3 Match the subject pronouns (1–8) with the reflexive pronouns (a–h).

- | | |
|------------------|--------------|
| 1 I | a himself |
| 2 you (singular) | b myself |
| 3 he | c herself |
| 4 she | d yourself |
| 5 it | e yourselves |
| 6 we | f itself |
| 7 you (plural) | g themselves |
| 8 they | h ourselves |

4 Complete the sentences with the correct reflexive pronouns. Use the underlined words to help you.

- You need to ask yourself some serious questions, Dan.
- Nicola shouldn't be angry with _____.
- I'm not very happy with _____.
- Has Matt bought anything for _____?
- Ella and Zoe have made _____ lunch.
- The cat is washing _____.
- Are you and Will teaching _____ German?

5 Circle the correct options.

- Do you know anything / something about Cervantes?
- I don't know anyone / no one here.
- Everyone* / Anyone at my new school is very nice.
- Oh, no! There's nothing / everything to eat in the fridge!
- There isn't somewhere / anywhere to go in this town!
- There's everyone / someone at the door.

6 Complete the indefinite pronouns.

- I was sad because no one helped me.
- Why is there water _____ where in the bathroom?
- I've got _____ thing important to tell you.
- There isn't _____ one in the playground.
- There's _____ where to sit, so you must stand.
- _____ one took my bag while I was in town!
- I can't go _____ where today because I'm sick.